

Decontamination booth for outdoor use with heater

820950K

GIA Premix decontamination booth for outdoor use with heater. Another step towards keeping your employees safe.

The decontamination booth is equipped with body and eye/face showers. Ideal for hazardous areas where harmful chemicals are handled, or any places where the need for outdoor emergency showers occurs, such as chemical systems, industrial compounds or harbour areas.

Measurements:

Height: 2660 mm
Depth: 2400 mm
Width: 1200 mm

- Equipped with 500 liter heater.
- The shower booth is constructed out of 45 mm polyurethane insulation and a sturdy frame.
- The booth is coated with a painted 0,6 mm zinc plating, and Vulcanized rubber sheet gives the roof extra protection.
- Equipped with swing doors that close automatically.
- Other equipment includes a radiator and motion detection lights for wet environments.
- Floor drain without trap.
- Signs indicate the entrance to the shower.
- Fixed temp. 25 °C.

